W. F. Lohnes, a prominent business man of Springfield, Ohio, writes the following one indorsement of the great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, to the Editor of the Spring-

"Having heard that you could procure a sample bottle of Swamp-Root free by mail, I rote to Dr. Klimer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle and it was promptly nt. I was so pleased after trying the sample bottle that I sent to the drug store and occured a supply. I have used Swamp-Root regularly for some time, and consider it unrpassed as a remedy for torpid liver, loss of appetite and general derangement of the sentire functions. I think my trouble was due to too close confinement in my business an recommend it highly for all liver and kidney complaints. I am not in the habit of forsing any medicine, but in this case I cannot speak too much in praise of what actor Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done for me."

Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the high es of the most distressing cases.

Catholic Knights of America to Settle Question at Biennial Meeting.

ARRIVED AT MASS IN A BODY.

Mayor Wells Welcomes Knights and Festus J. Wade Entertains Them at the World's Fair Grounds.

Among the important questions to be considered by the Supreme Council of the Catholic Knights of America, which began its fourteentn blennial session vesterday at the outhern Hotel, is the location of national headquarters and the selection of a place for the future sessions of the council. Four years ago the national headquarters were located in this city. A blennial coun-il was held here two years ago, and this is he second one since St. Louis was chosen were located in this city. A blennial council was held here two years ago, and this is the second one since St. Louis was chosen as readquarters.

It is probable that another city will at this session be chosen as headquarters, in that event the meeting place of the council will be changed, as it occasions much inconvenience to move the many books and documents which have to be gone over and examined at each blennial council.

Yesterday's proceedings opened with a solemn high mass in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Sixth and Biddie streets, at which Bishop John J. Glennon was the celebrant. The delegates marched from the Southern Hotel to the church, led by a brass band, under the command of Terrence Martin.

The council opened a rew minutes after noon. The fifty-eight delegates were welcomed by Mayor Rolla Wells and Bishop Glennon. P. J. O'Connor of Savannah, Ga., responded to the addresses. A committee on credentials was appointed and the council adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the delegates were taken to the World's Fair grounds in special cars and, as the guests of Festus J. Wade, were shown over the site. A luncheon was served and the party returned to the city about $ o'clock last night.

An all-day session will be held to-day. To-An all-day session will be held to-day. Tomerrow afternoon the delegates will go up on a boat excursion which has been ar-ranged by the local entertainment commit-on a boat excursion which has been arranged by the local entertainment committee.

The question of reducing the minimum amount for which certificates are issued from $500 to $250 will be considered, and is regarded as important. At present there are only three amounts for which members can be insured—$2,000, $1,000 and $500.

The officers of the council are J. P. O'Connor of Savannah, Ga., president; J. C. Carroll of St. Louis, secretary; Joseph Berning of Cincanati, editor; William Blakeslee of Hallettsville, Tex., vice president; Charles E. Hannauer of St. Louis, treasurer; E. J. Brennan of Indianapolis, medical exeminer; W. C. Smith of Louisville, Edward Feeney of Brooklyn and Adam Jagser of Chicago, trustees.

There are delegates present from all States of the Union. States having more than 500 members of the order are entitled to two delegates. The delegates are Edward G. Draper, Alabama; Richard Miles, Arkansas; J. B. Mannix, California; Edward J. Royce, Colorado; George B.
